Our new Buddha-Bar menu offers a fine selection of the latest in Pacific Rim cuisine. Each dish combines the distinctive flavors, spices and ingredients of classic Chinese, Japanese and East Asian tradition, masterfully linked to Western tastes. We have expanded our menu to include new ingredients and treatments that we hope will enhance our guests' culinary experience, pleasing the eye as well as the palate. All our dishes are presented according to the Asian "Family Style" concept, with dishes centered on the table so guests may share; and pick and choose in a convivial atmosphere. Our latest adaptations modernize Pan-Asian cuisine with distinctive savory and spicy ingredients that give each dish a style all its' own. In preparing our latest menu, we have made use of original Japanese, Chinese and other East Asian recipes, reinterpreting them with modern culinary techniques. And, too, this menu reflects the deep knowledge of culinary arts and distinctive food cultures Buddha-Bar's Master Chef has gathered from around the world.
